

Mid-Mo TAWL & CPS present:

Becoming Literacy Ambassadors

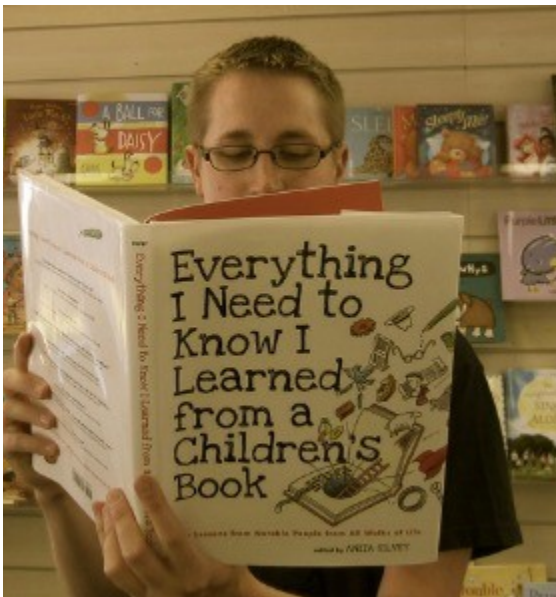

Keynote speech by

John Schumacher

better known as Mr. Schu.

John Schumacher is a blogger, a part-time lecturer at Rutgers University, and the Ambassador of School Libraries for Scholastic Book Fairs. He served on the 2014 Newbery committee which named the title Flora and Ulysses: The Illuminated Adventures “the most distinguished contribution to children’s literature.” He has also served on ALSC’s Children and Technology committee, AASL’s Best Websites for Teachers and Learning, two Readers’ Choice Award committees, the School Library Monthly Planning Committee, and the National Ambassador for Young People’s Literature selection committee.

October 7, 2017, 8:30—2:00

Break out sessions include:

- ◇ Conferring with Readers
- ◇ Paperless Grammar
- ◇ Touch & Feel Books
- ◇ Break out EDU
- ◇ Social Justice Picturebooks
- ◇ Project-Based Learning

To Register Visit: tawl.missouri.org

Conference Cost:

- $50 Conference and TAWL membership
- $40 Conference Only
- $20 Students and First year teachers

Contact Stephanie Wightman at swightman@cpsk12.org or Misha Fugit at mfugit@cpsk12.org for group discount information or questions.